1. INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)

Teacher Says:

“Today we’re learning about Marco Polo, a merchant from Venice whose journey across Asia changed the way Europeans saw the world.”

Define briefly:

- Silk Road
- Merchant
- Kublai Khan
- Caravan
- Il Milione (Marco’s written account)

Ask:

“What challenges do you think travelers faced when crossing thousands of miles of land and sea in the 1200s?”

2. ARTICLE READING (10 minutes) or PRESENTATION (20 minutes)

Quick Check:

“Why did Marco Polo’s stories impress Europeans when he returned home?”

Expected answers:

- Described paper money, porcelain, riches
 - China’s large cities and inventions were new to Europeans
 - Inspired future explorers like Columbus

3. INTERACTIVE SILK ROAD MAP + SCAVENGER HUNT (20 minutes)

<https://learnaboutamerica.com/american-history/explorers-and-the-age-of-exploration/battles/marco-polo>

Scroll down to access the map. Have students complete the scavenger hunt on the map. This involves them clicking on and reading about the various points along the map. This map helps to pair history with geography.

Follow up by asking students about some of the countries along the Silk Road.

Grades 3–5:

- Locate major cities and basic path
- Identify deserts and mountains with help
- Answer simple scavenger questions

Grades 6–9:

- Analyze trade patterns
- Explain why certain routes were dangerous
- Evaluate why the Silk Road helped spread ideas, goods, and diseases

Discussion:

“How did geography shape Marco Polo’s route?”

“What dangers might caravans have faced crossing deserts and mountains?”

5. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS (5-10 minutes)

(Use whole class or break into pairs)

1. Why was Marco Polo's journey important for Europe?
 2. What made his stories about Asia so interesting to people in Europe?
 3. How do you think Marco Polo felt traveling so far from home at such a young age?
 4. What would you want to ask Marco Polo if you could meet him?
 5. Why did his stories inspire future explorers?
